Did you know? According to legend, the she-wolf is the symbol of Rome: she fed Romulus and Remus, the city's founders.

How to play

Hi! I am Romì, the little wolf explorer. Come with me and discover Rome!

1

Color

Grab pencils or crayons and bring the Colosseum, Trevi Fountain, Pantheon and more to life. There are no wrong colors!

2

Play

Mazes, word searches and quizzes are waiting for you. Ask a grown-up for help if you need it.

3

Learn

Discover Roman words, Latin words and lots of fun facts about the city's landmarks.

4

Explore

Set off on the treasure hunt with a grown-up: every stop has a mission to complete.

Tip: use colored pencils, wax crayons or fine markers. With thick markers, put a sheet of paper under the page. Have fun!

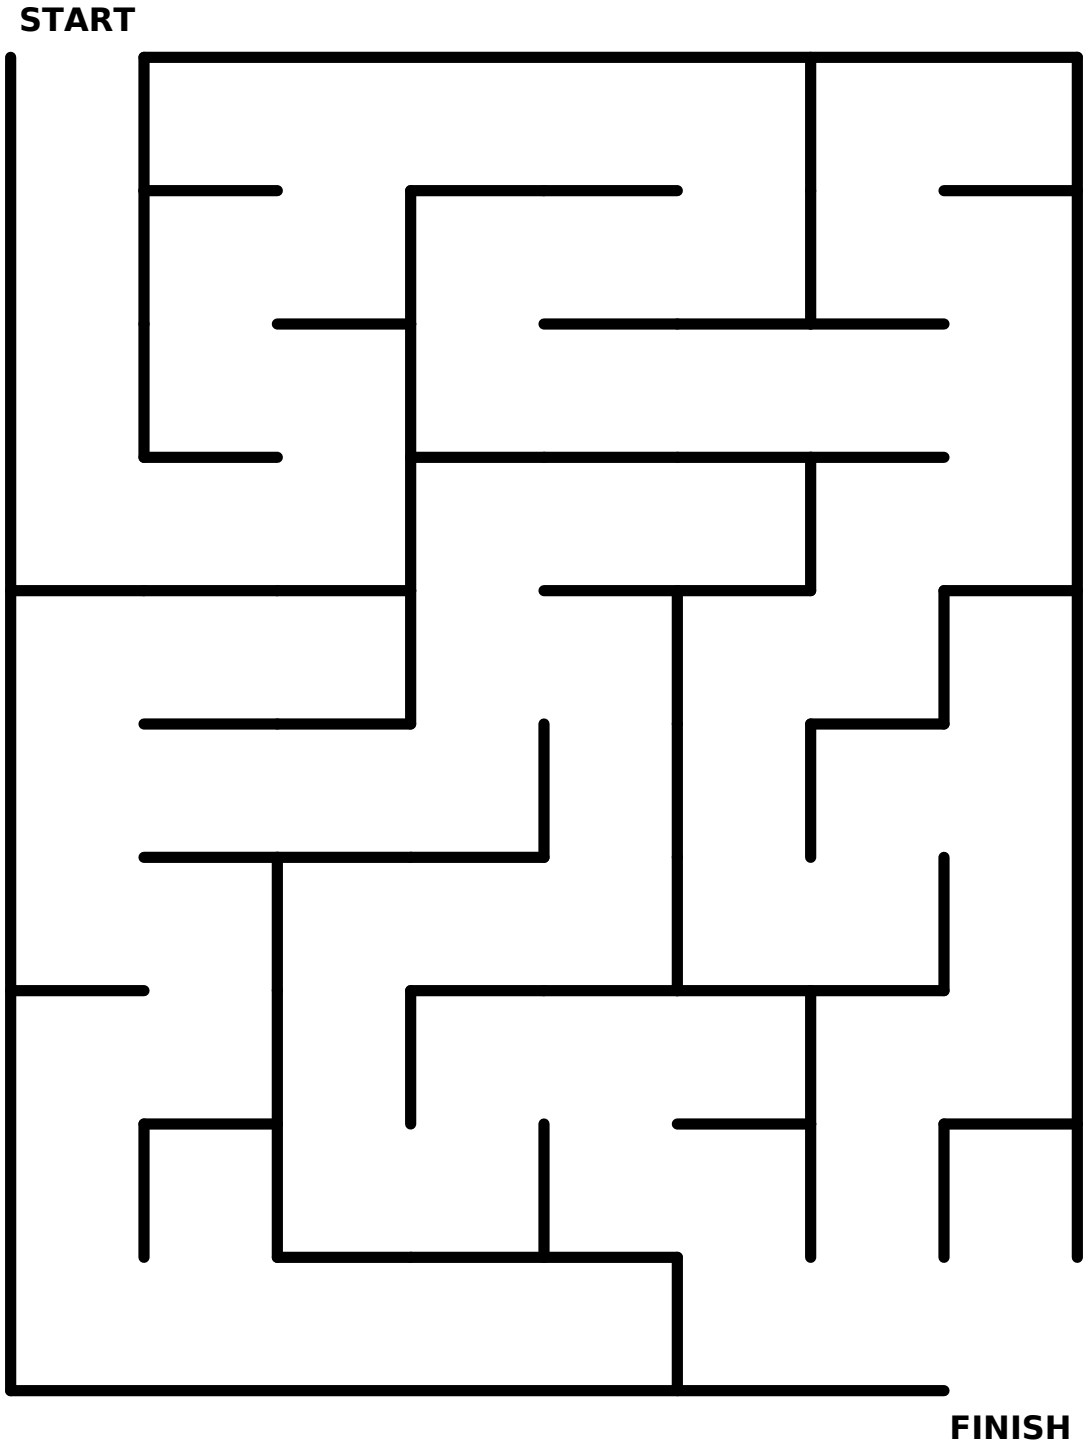

The Colosseum

It opened in 80 AD with 100 days of games and could hold about 50,000 spectators!

Help Romì reach the Colosseum

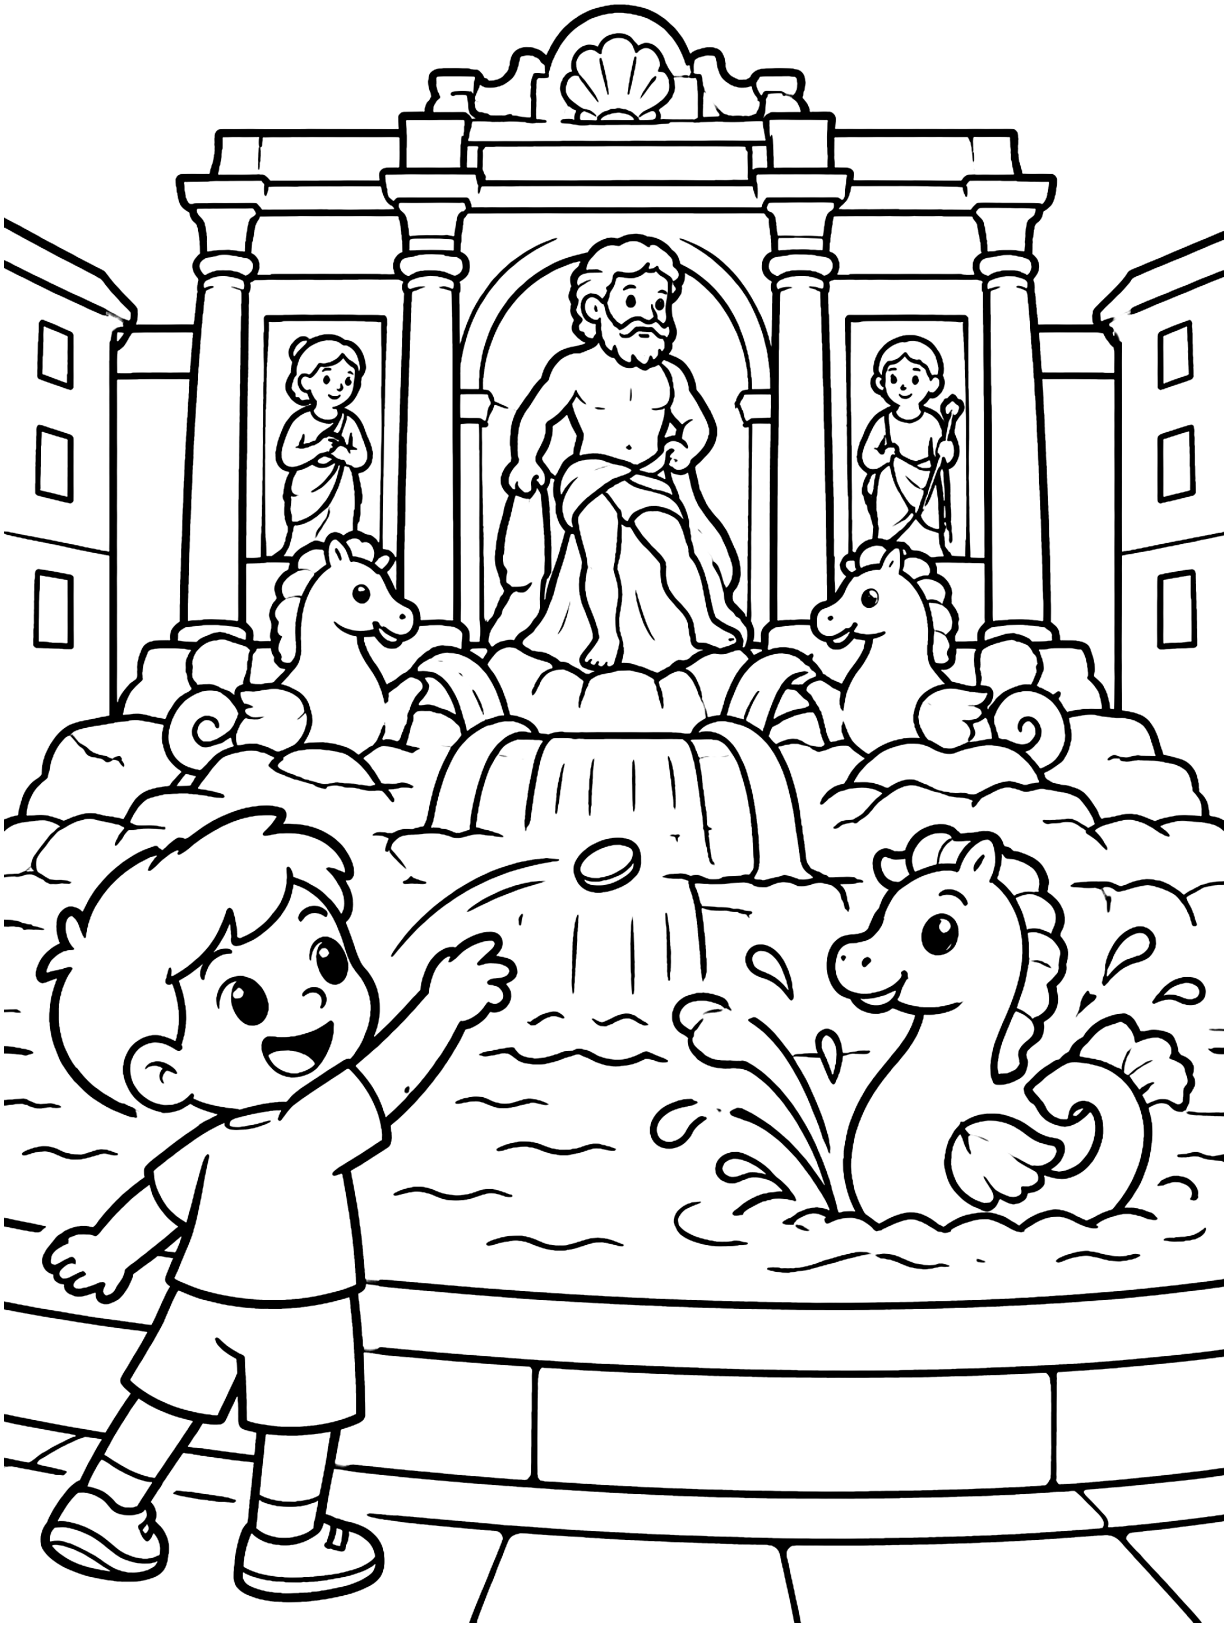

Find the right way through the streets of Rome.

Did you know? The Colosseum is also called the Flavian Amphitheatre, after the family of emperors who had it built.

The Trevi Fountain

Toss a coin over your left shoulder with your right hand: they say it means you will return to Rome!

The wonders of Rome

Find the words in the grid: they go across, down and diagonally.

Did you know? The Pantheon's dome is about 43 meters wide: one of the largest ancient domes still standing!

Roman words

In Rome people also speak Romanesco! Learn 5 words and draw what they mean.

Daje!

It means «come on!». You say it to cheer someone on or encourage them.

Anvedi!

It means «look!» or «what a surprise!». You say it when you see something nice.

Nun te preoccupà

It means «don't worry». A Roman phrase to stay calm.

Magnà

It means «to eat». In Rome you eat very well!

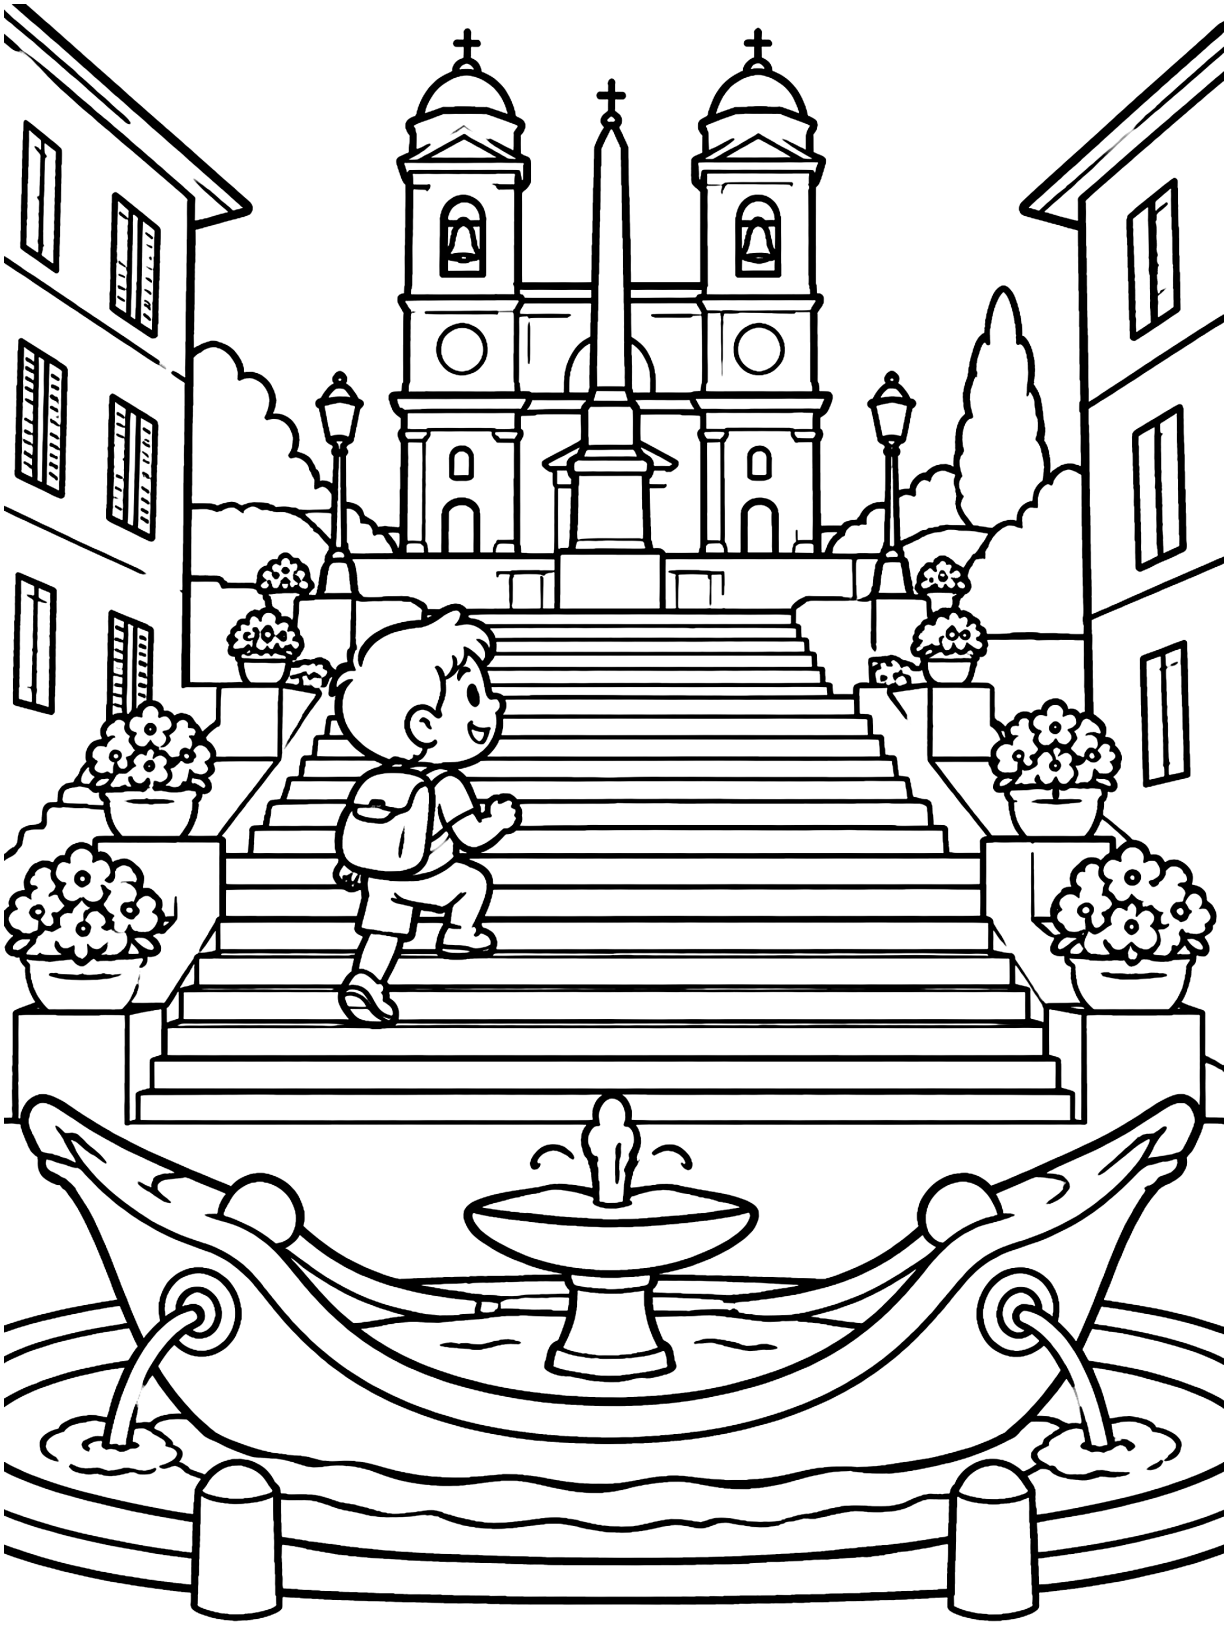

Aò!

A call to get someone's attention, like «hey!».

Did you know? Romanesco is the typical way of speaking in Rome: some words are only used by Romans!

The Spanish Steps

They have 135 steps. At the bottom is the Barcaccia fountain, shaped like a boat.

St. Peter's Square

A great colonnade hugs the square and an obelisk rises in the middle. You can see the dome from far away!

Treasure hunt 1

With a grown-up, in the center of Rome. Every stop has a mission: do them in any order and even on different days!

1

The Colosseum

Count the arches in one row: how many do you see? Write the number in the box.

2

The Trevi Fountain

With a grown-up, toss a coin over your left shoulder and make a wish.

3

The Pantheon

Look at the dome: can you see the round hole at the top? Draw it.

4

The Spanish Steps

Find the boat-shaped fountain and count how many people are on the steps.

5

The Mouth of Truth

Wait in line and put your hand in the mouth. Draw the face you made!

Watch out for traffic: always walk with a grown-up and hold their hand when crossing.

Did you know? The Colosseum has four floors: the first three are full of big arches.

Treasure hunt 2

With a grown-up, in the center of Rome. Every stop has a mission: do them in any order and even on different days!

6

The nasone

Find a nasone and take a sip with a grown-up. Check that the water is drinkable.

7

The bridge of angels

Walk across Ponte Sant'Angelo: can you spot the angel statues? How many do you see?

8

A gelato

Try a gelato: which flavor did you pick? Write it or draw it.

9

St. Peter's Square

Find the obelisk in the middle of the square and take a photo with a grown-up.

10

The supplì

Try a supplì (if you like it): does it stretch like a phone cord? Draw the cheese!

Watch out for traffic: always walk with a grown-up and hold their hand when crossing.

Did you know? Emperor Hadrian built Ponte Sant'Angelo to reach his tomb, now called Castel Sant'Angelo.

My wish at Trevi

You tossed the coin in the fountain: draw the wish you made!
