How to play

1

Color

Grab pencils or crayons and bring pizza, Mount Vesuvius, castles and Pulcinella to life. There are no wrong colors!

2

Play

Mazes, word searches and dot-to-dot puzzles are waiting for you. Ask a grown-up for help if you need it.

3

Learn

Discover some Neapolitan words and play tombola, a number game much loved in Naples.

4

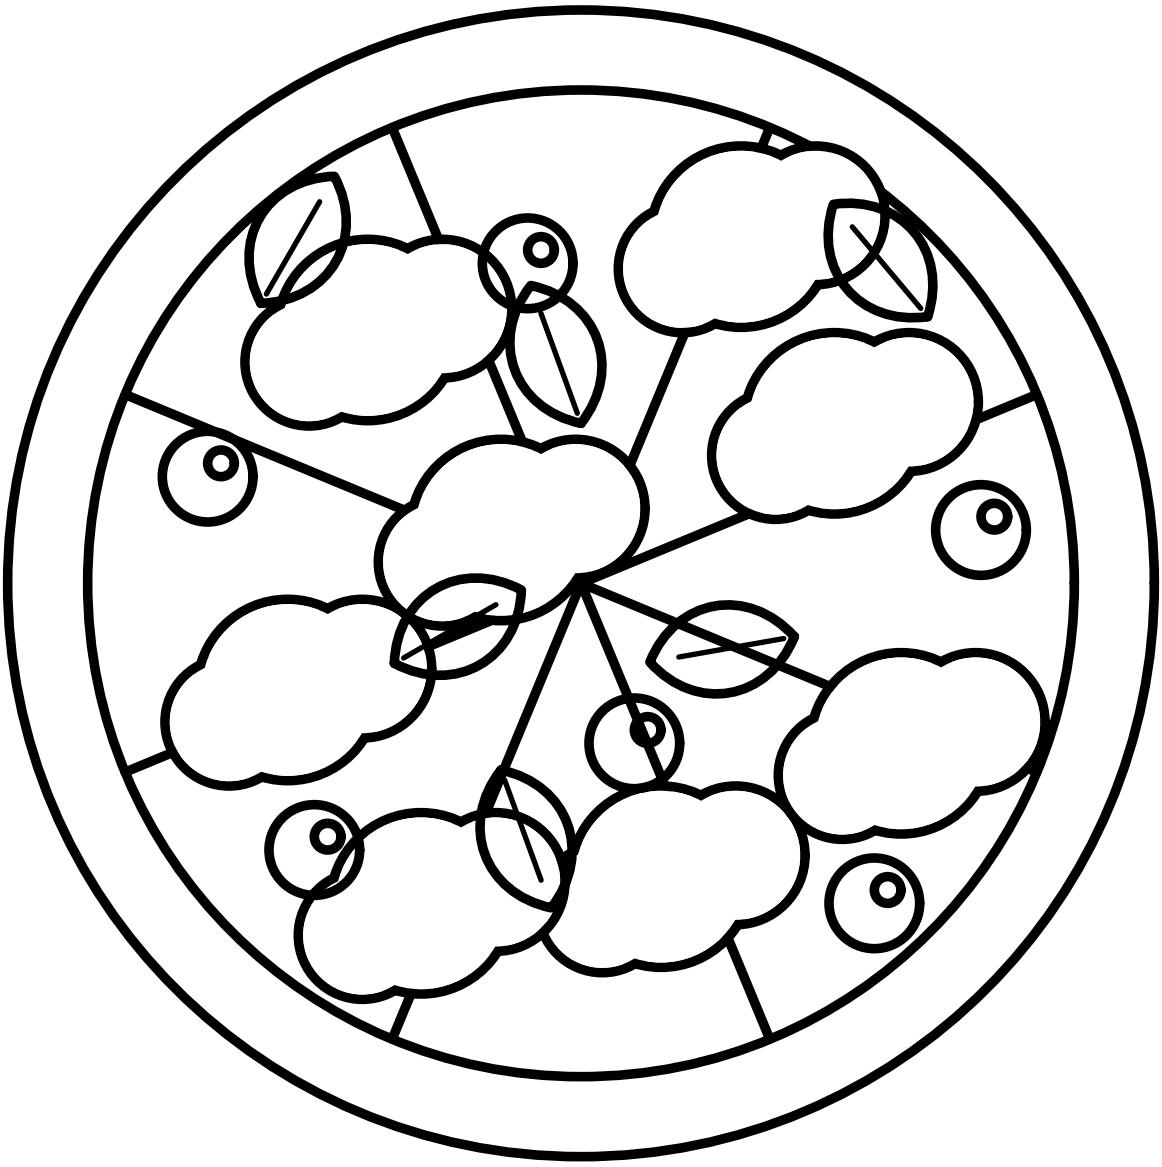

Explore

With a grown-up, go on the treasure hunt through the city: every stop has a mission to complete.

Tip: use colored pencils, wax crayons or fine markers. If you use thick markers, put a sheet of paper under the page. Have fun!

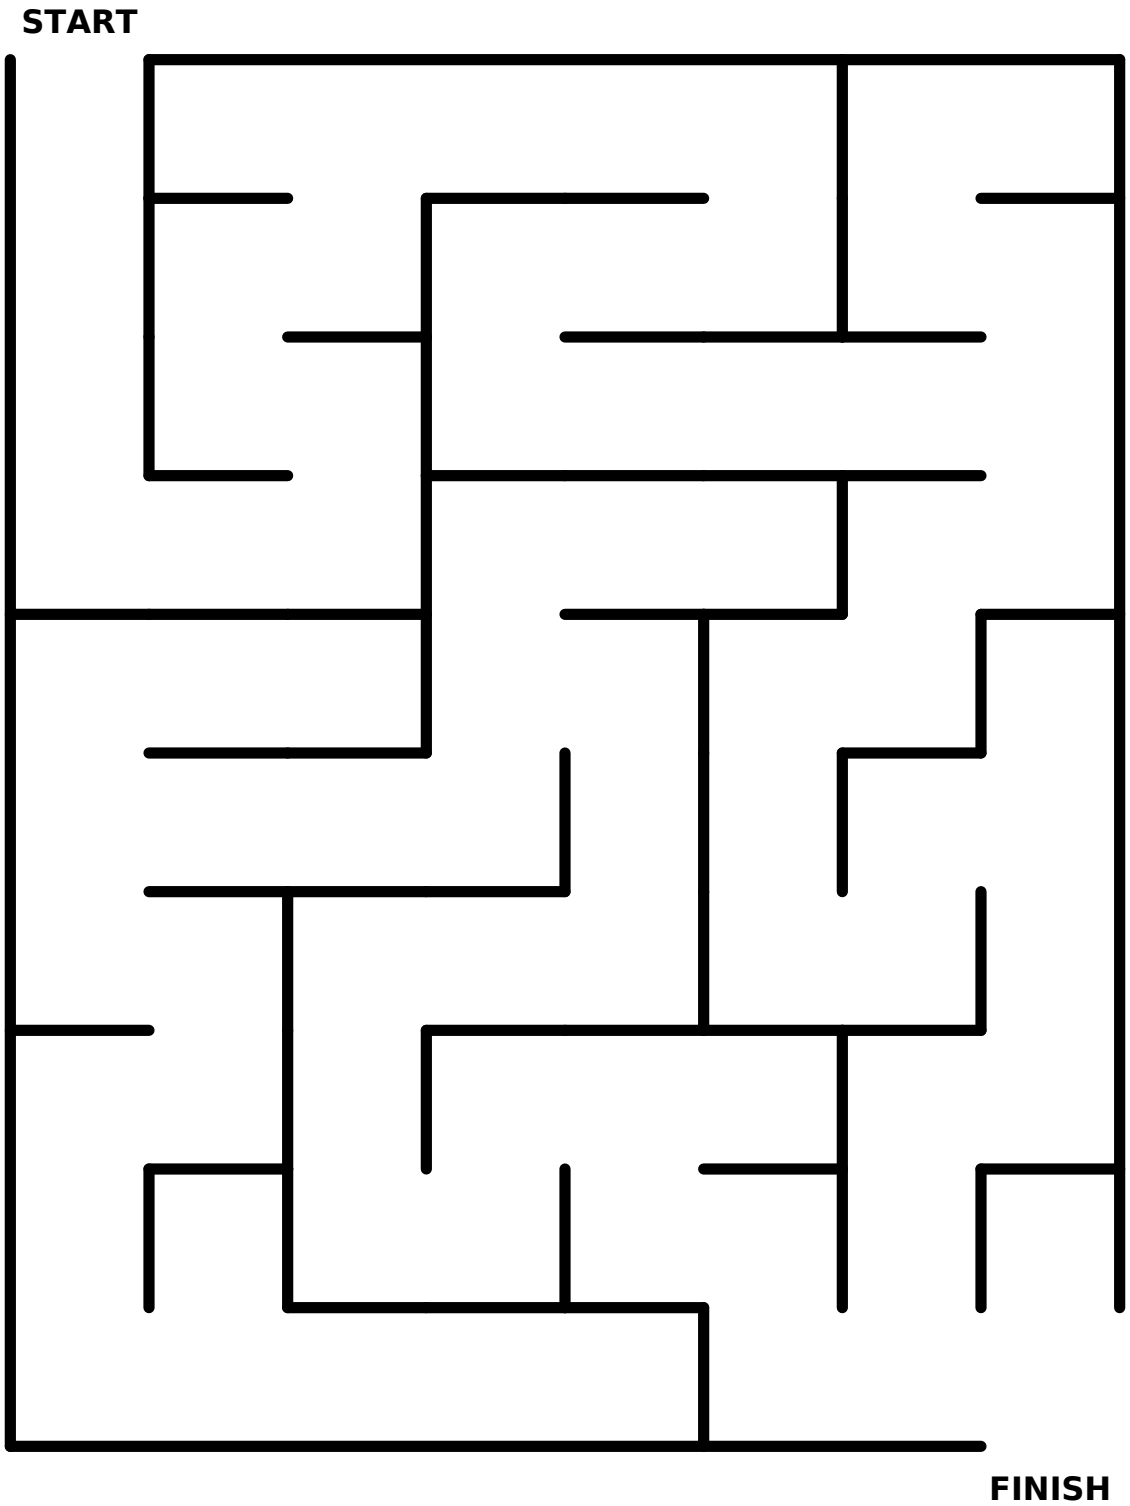

The pizza of Naples

Color the pizza: tomato red, mozzarella white and basil green!

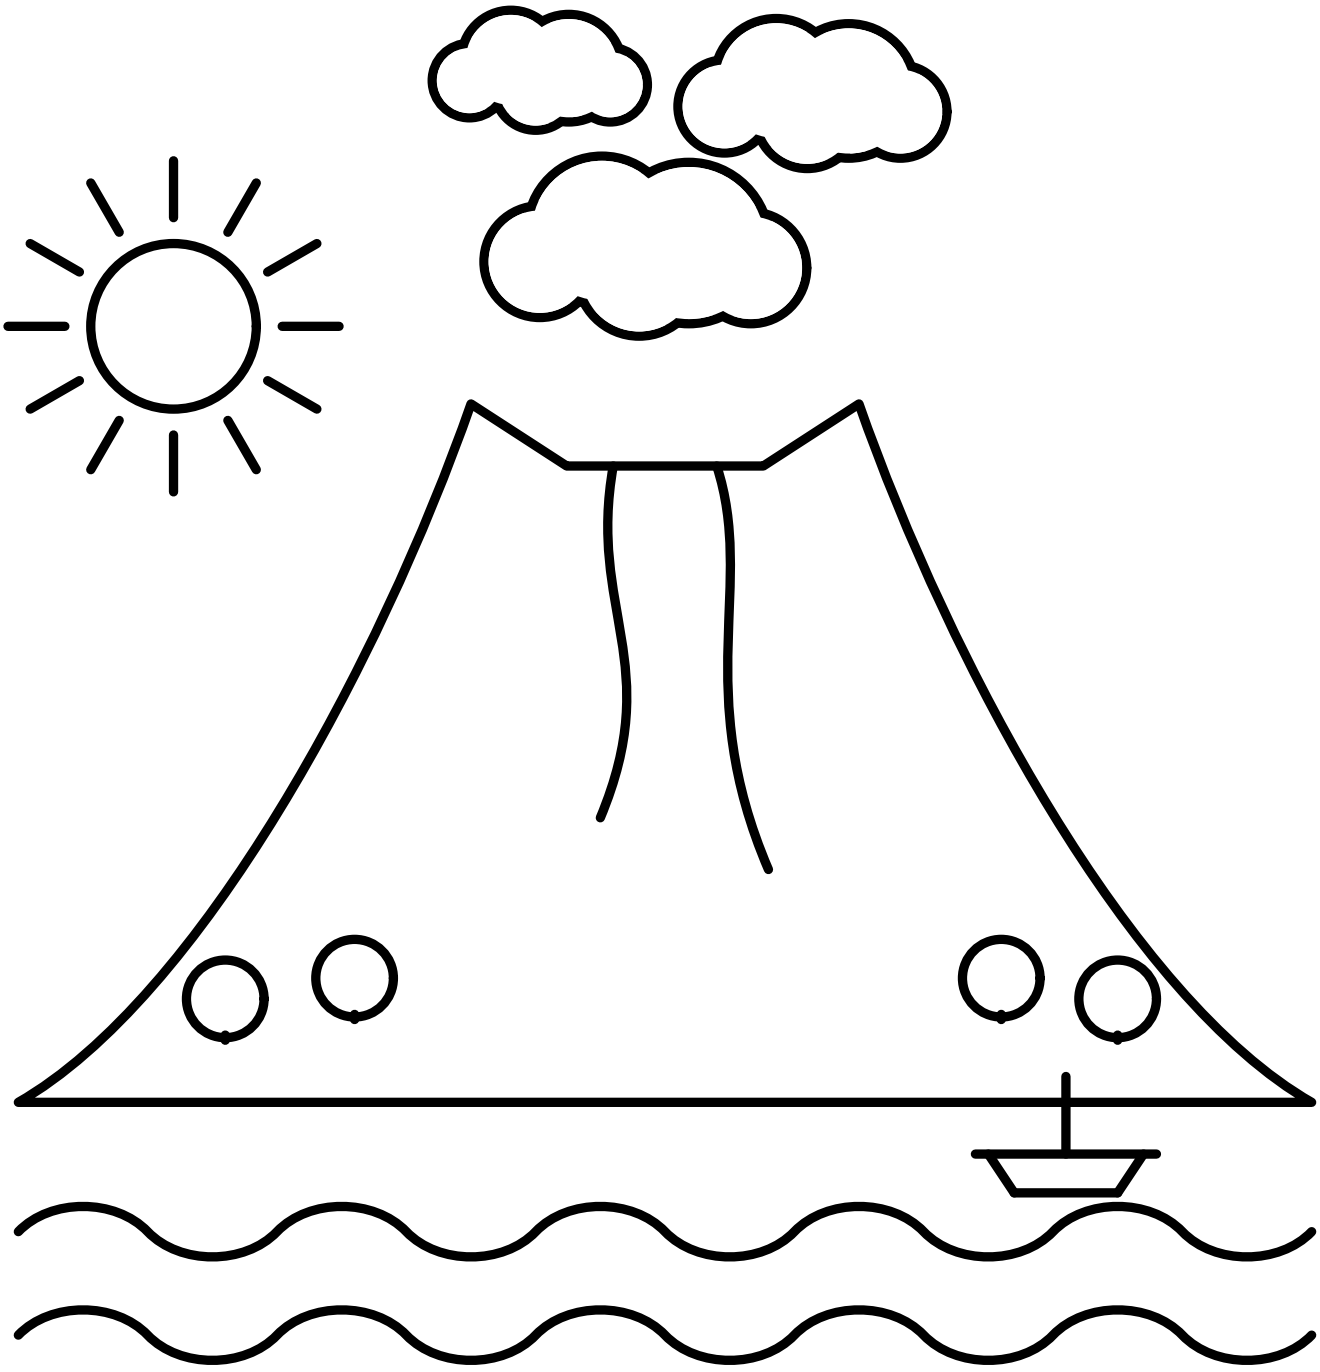

Bring the pizza to the table

Help the pizza maker find the way to the table.

Mount Vesuvius

The volcano above the city. Color the smoke, the sea and the sun.

Word search: food

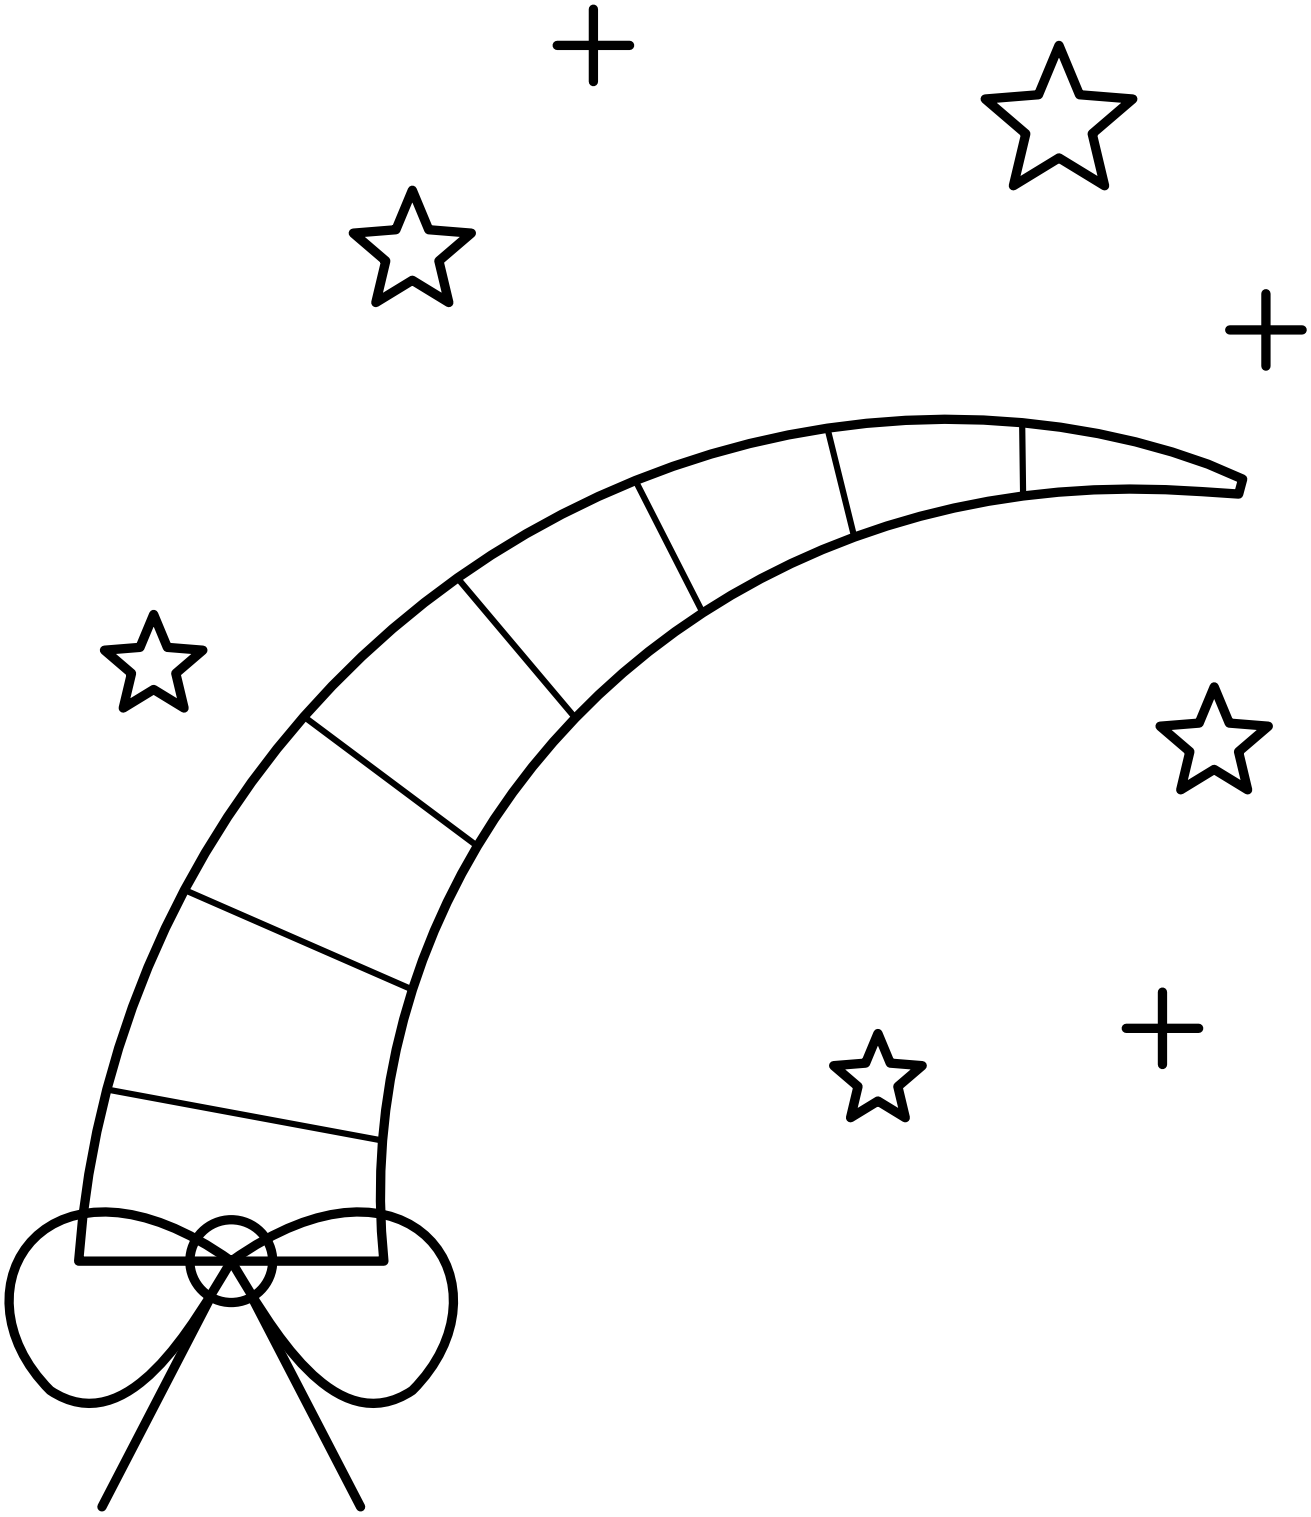

Find the hidden words: across, down and diagonally.

The lucky horn

A Neapolitan charm that brings good luck. Color it any way you like!

Dot to dot: Vesuvius

Follow the numbers starting from 1 and discover the volcano.

Join the dots in order, then color the picture.

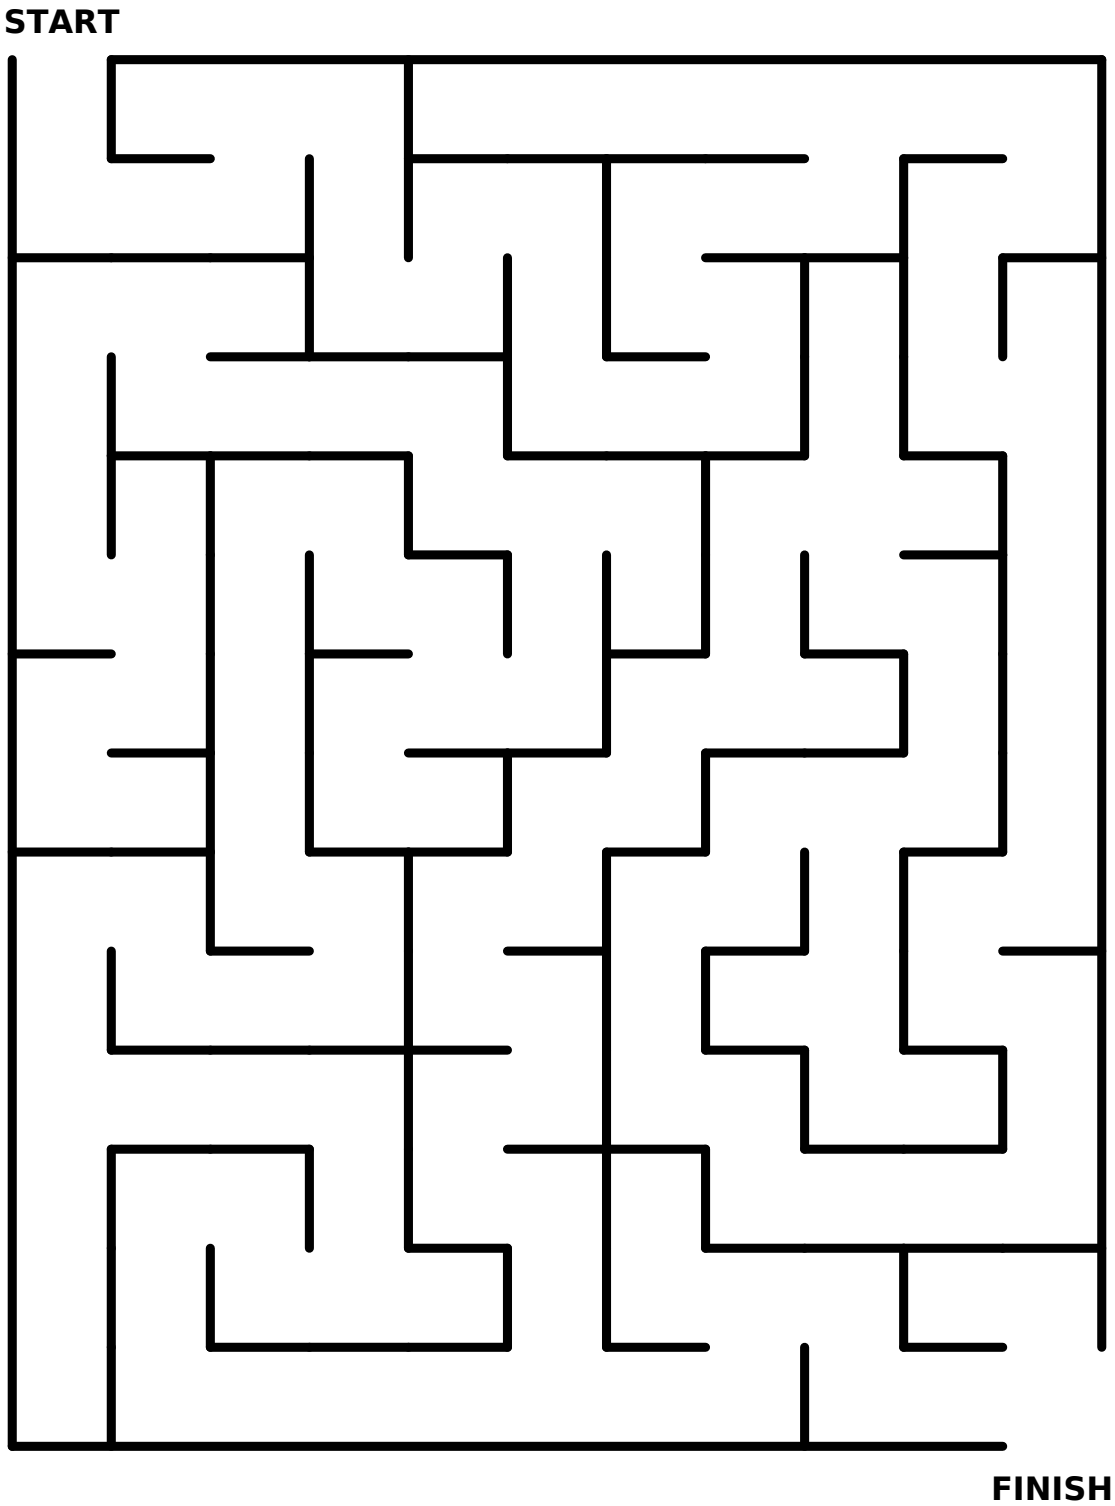

A little cup of coffee

In Naples, coffee is serious business. Color the cup, saucer and stars.

From the port to Vesuvius

Find the right way through the alleys of the city.

Neapolitan words

In Naples people speak Italian, but many also use Neapolitan. Here are some words to read out loud!

Uè!

Hey! Hi! A cheerful greeting between friends.

Guaglione

Boy, kid. The word for a girl is guagliona.

Scugnizzo

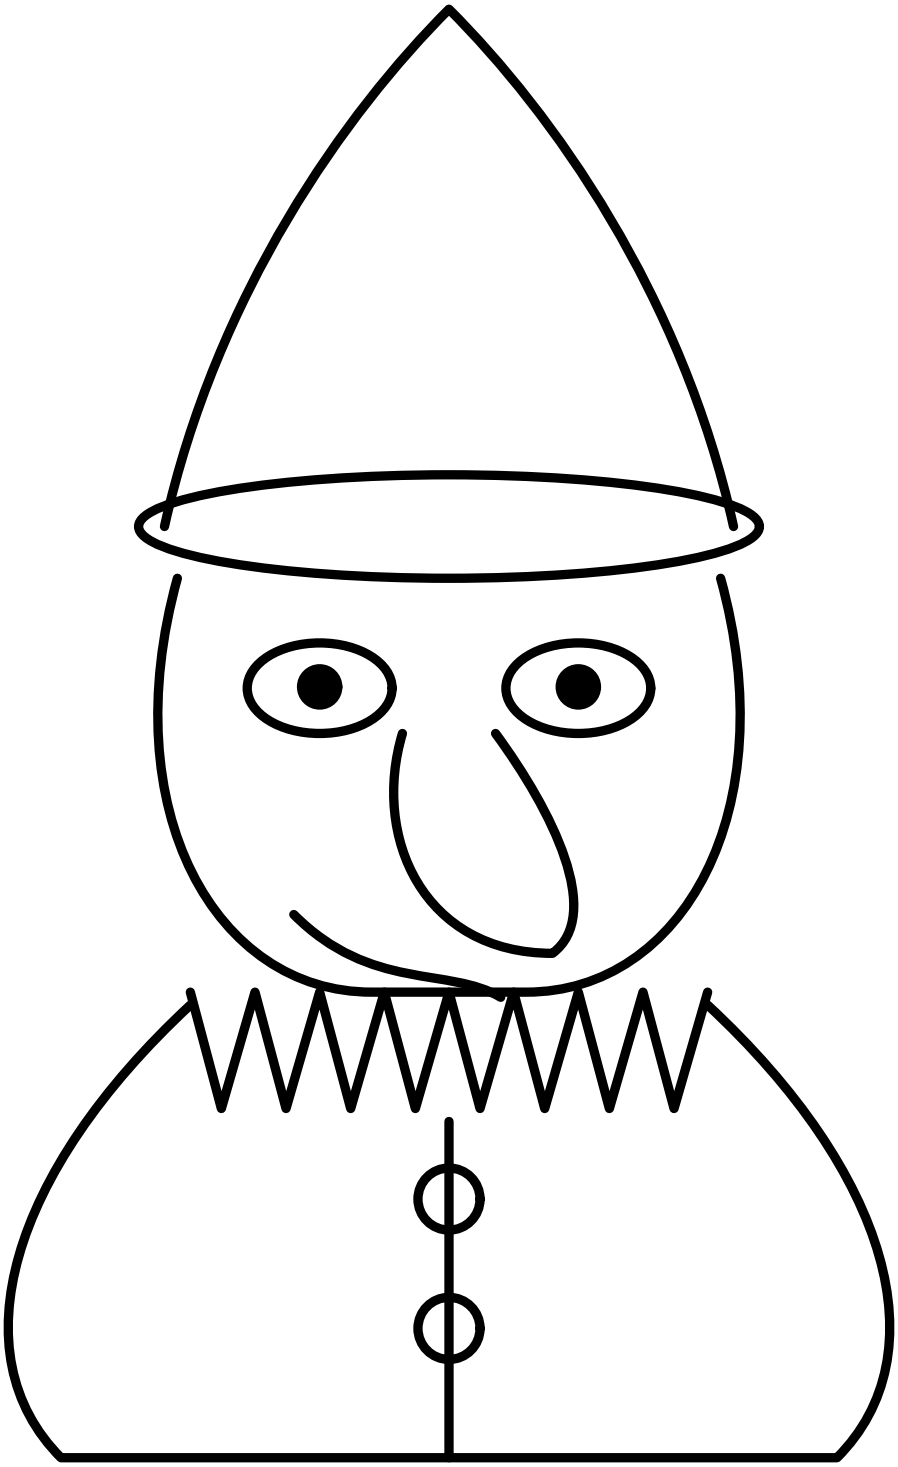

A lively, street-smart kid who runs around the alleys.

'O sole

The sun. As in the famous Neapolitan song 'O sole mio.

Pulcinella

The famous Neapolitan mask, with a white hat and a long nose.

Neapolitan words

In Naples people speak Italian, but many also use Neapolitan. Here are some words to read out loud!

Cuoppo

A paper cone filled with fried food, to eat while walking.

Mammà

Mom, said with lots of love.

Mo'

Now, right away. For example: Mo' arrivo! means I'm coming now.

Statte bbuono!

Take care! A warm way to say goodbye.

Tombola

A number game that families in Naples love to play, especially at Christmas.

How to play: one person draws numbers from 1 to 90 and calls them out. If you have the number on your card, cover it with a bean, a button or a cross.

Five covered numbers in a row: Cinquina! A completely covered card: Tombola! Play with your family or a friend.

Treasure hunt 1

With a grown-up, in the center of Naples. Every stop has a mission: do them in any order, even on different days!

1

Piazza del Plebiscito

A huge square with a colonnade. Find the two statues of kings on horseback and draw one.

2

Teatro San Carlo

A theater with lots of lights. Look at the front and invent a song to sing.

3

Galleria Umberto I

Look up: do you see the big glass dome? Look at the floor too and draw a shape you find.

4

Maschio Angioino

A castle with round towers in the city center. Count the towers and write the number.

5

Via Toledo

A street full of shops. Find a pastry shop and write its name.

Watch out for traffic: always walk with a grown-up and hold their hand when crossing.

Treasure hunt 2

Five more explorer stops. Tick the box when the mission is done.

6

Spaccanapoli

A long straight street in the old town. Count how many balconies with hanging laundry you see.

☐

7

San Gregorio Armeno

The street of nativity scenes. Find a handmade shepherd or Pulcinella and draw it.

☐

8

Piazza del Gesù Nuovo

Look at the church front: it is made of pointed stones. What shape are they?

☐

9

The seafront

Stroll by the sea and look at Vesuvius in the distance. Draw its shape.

☐

10

Castel dell'Ovo

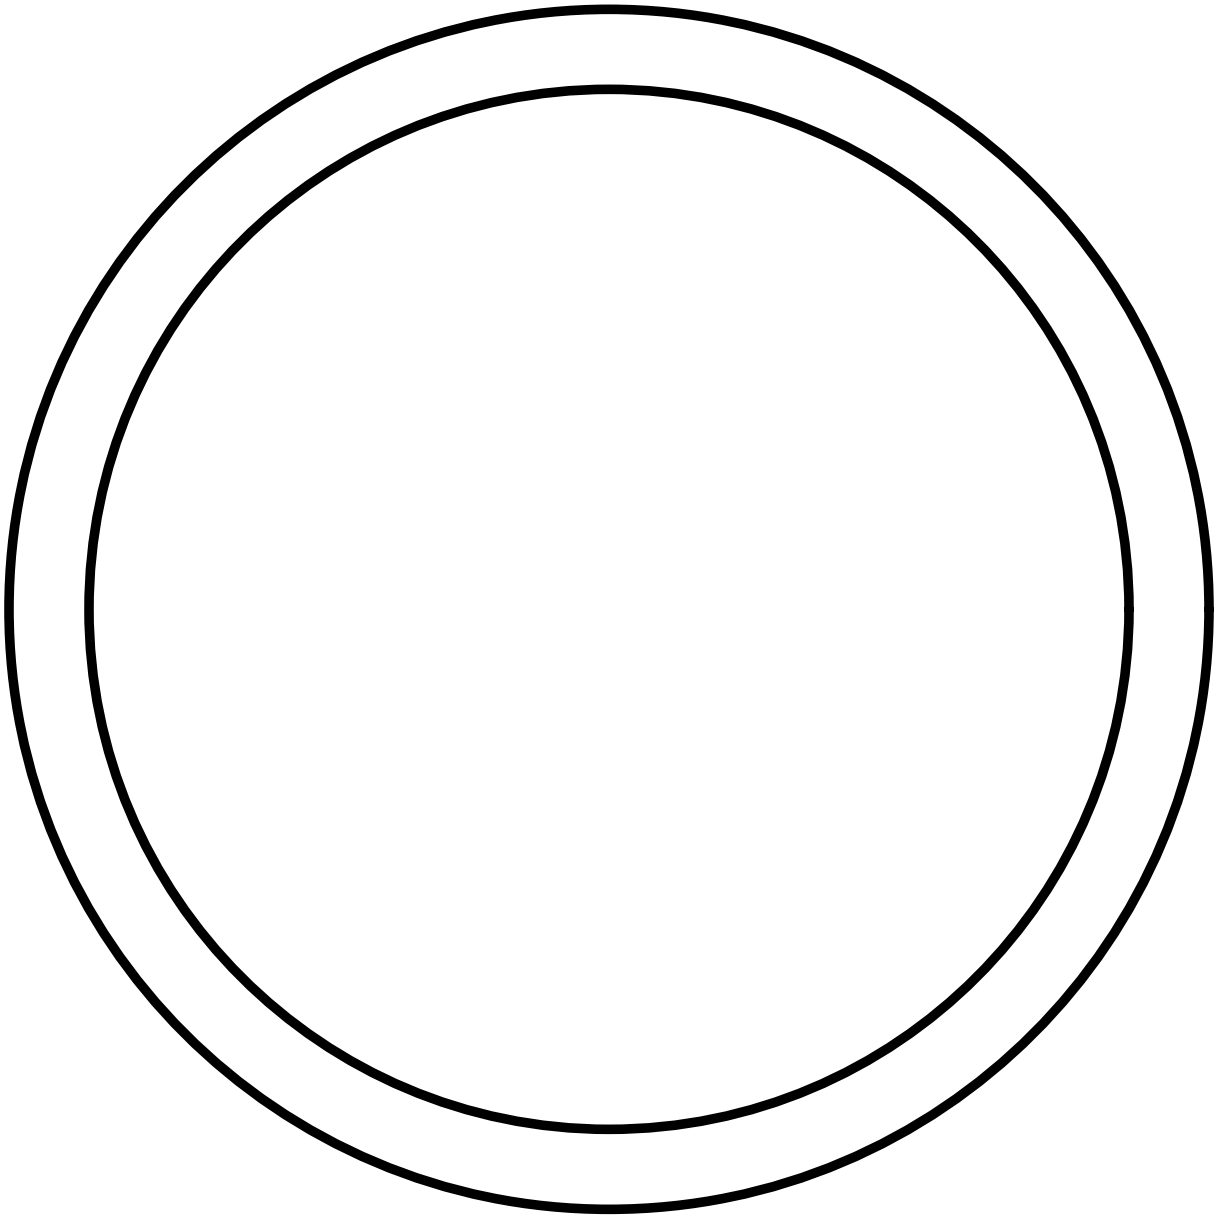

A castle by the sea. Find a seagull and a boat and draw them.

☐

Watch out for traffic: always walk with a grown-up and hold their hand when crossing.

Draw your pizza

What goes on top? Invent the silliest and tastiest pizza in the world!
